 - iii. indemnify the Management Committee and members acting properly in the course of the running of the Club against any liability incurred in the proper running of the Club (but only to the extent of its assets).
- d. The Committee will have due regard to the law on disability discrimination and child protection.

9. Annual General Meetings

General Meetings are the means whereby the members of the Club exercise their democratic rights in conducting the Club's affairs.

- a. Notice of Annual General Meetings (AGM) will be given by the Club Secretary. Not less than 14 clear days notice to be given to all members.
- b. The club shall hold the AGM in the month of January.
- c. The AGM will receive a report from officers of the Management Committee and a statement of the audited accounts.
- d. Nominations for officers of the Management Committee will be sent to the Secretary at least 7 days prior to the AGM.
- e. Elections of officers are to take place bi-annually at the AGM.

- f. All members have the right to vote at the AGM (parents of junior members will vote on behalf of their child member, having 1 vote per child).
- g. Agree the membership fees for the following year.
- h. Consider any changes to the constitution. Proposed changes to the constitution will be sent to the Secretary prior to the AGM, who shall circulate them at least 7 days before an AGM.
- i. The quorum for AGMs will be 25% of the membership.
- j. The Chairman of the club shall hold a deliberative as well as casting vote at general and committee meetings.
- k. An Extraordinary General Meeting (EGM) shall be called by an application in writing to the Secretary supported by at least 10% of the members of the Club. The committee shall also have the power to call an EGM by decision of a simple majority of the committee members.
 - i. Any officer or ordinary committee member that is voted into position at an EGM shall be in place until the bi-annual voting AGM.

10. Discipline and appeals

All concerns, allegations or reports of poor practice/abuse relating to the welfare of children and young people will be recorded and responded to swiftly and appropriately in accordance with the club's child protection policy and procedures. The Club Welfare Officer is the lead contact for all members in the event of any child protection concerns.

- a. All complaints regarding the behaviour of members should be presented and submitted in writing to the Secretary.
- b. The Management Committee will meet to hear complaints within 7 days (or such longer period as the Management Committee deem appropriate to allow a proper investigation into the complaint) of a complaint being lodged. The committee has the power to take appropriate disciplinary action including the termination of membership.
- c. The outcome of a disciplinary hearing should be notified in writing to the person who lodged the complaint and the member against whom the complaint was made within 7 days of the hearing.
- d. There will be the right of appeal by the person against whom the complaint was made to the Management Committee following disciplinary action being announced. A sub-committee of the Management Committee (made up of at least 3 members of the Management Committee who to the extent possible shall not include any individual who sat on the initial hearing) should consider the appeal within 7 days of the Secretary receiving the appeal.
- e. All fines relating to on field discipline, unless at the Committee's discretion, will be the responsibility of the member or the junior members parents. The player will not be eligible to play until such fines are paid.
- f. Minor breaches of club rules may be dealt with on an informal basis by any committee member or coach. If the outcome is not accepted by the member then the member may request the formal process to be adopted as above. At the discretion of the committee, playing privileges can be suspended pending the hearing.
- g. Social networking sites (such as, but not exclusively, Facebook, YouTube, Twitter etc.) are a useful way for keeping in touch with people and are also a great way to exchange information.

However, members and parents of junior members, must not forget that what they post on social networking sites may be seen across these networks, and are reminded that they must not bring the Club, the playing league or the Rugby Football League into disrepute or cause any distress to any other member.

11. Dissolution

- (i) Members may vote to wind up the Club if not less than three quarters of those present and voting support that proposal at a properly convened general meeting.
- (ii) The Committee will then be responsible for the orderly winding up of the Club's affairs
